Christian(ese): The Doctrine of the Atonement

Genesis 3:14-22; Isaiah 53

Atonement = To make at one again. To purge, cleanse or purify. To cover or to conceal.

MY NEXT STEPS:

1. This week, I will take time daily to pause, reflect, and say “Thank You” to Jesus for sacrificing His life for me.
2. This week, I will strive to live my life as one, big “Thank You” to God for all that He has done for me.
3. This week, I will attempt to share the love of Jesus with at least two people who I believe are far from God.
4. Today, I will fill out a SERVE form to receive more information on serving here at FFC.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear FishHawk Family,

Welcome to Worship! Today we continue our current series "Christian(ese): Making Sense of What We Say" by looking at the Doctrine of the Atonement. More than fodder for theological debate, the Doctrine of the Atonement is the glorious and life-changing message that on the cross, Jesus died for our sins and in our place!

As we are about to see, the Doctrine of the Atonement is a teaching and a theme that runs throughout the Bible. From the first book of the Bible, Genesis, all the way through the New Testament letters, the glorious message of Jesus' sacrifice on the cross shines a ray of light and hope for all the world to see. It is my prayer that you will lean into this all-important message and be captivated by the love that Jesus has for you!

In Christ Alone,

David

Additionally, if you can, we are asking you to buy a chair for a guest you would like to invite. These future chairs are not just a place to sit, but represent future life change! You can give online or use a tithe envelope and designate "Chair."
